Plaintiff, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, by and through its Counsel of Record the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of California, and defendant, WILLIAM J. ROWE, by and through his counsel of record, NICOLAS J. ESTRADA, hereby stipulate as follows:

1. The defendant made his last appearance on February 17, 2005 before the United States District Court Judge David F. Levi. At this hearing the defendant changed his plea and entered a plea of guilty. The Sentencing hearing is currently set for July 7, 2005.
2. Since his last hearing the defendant has undergone open heart surgery, wherein one of defendant's heart valves was replaced. The defendant will therefore need additional time to recover from this major heart surgery.

3. He is also requesting the Court's permission to go to Salt Lake City, Utah during the month of August, 2005 to attend the birth of his grandson.

4. By this stipulation the parties jointly request a continuance of his sentencing hearing to the week of September 15, 2005 and also stipulate to the defendant being granted permission to go to Salt Lake City, Utah.

4. The parties agree and stipulate and request that the Court find the following:

a. The defendant will need additional time to address his current very serious heart condition prior to sentencing.

b. The defendant will need permission to go to Salt Lake City, Utah.

c. Based on the above stated finding the ends of justice will be served by allowing a continuance of defendant's sentencing hearing to September 15, 2005 at 10:00 a.m.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
